

Ebola and Schools: Colorado is Ready to Respond

Schools:

Talk to your School Safety Officer

Work with your local public health agency to revise your Emergency Operations Plan (EOP)

Staff, students, and parents should take everyday actions to prevent spread of germs

Other Partners:

Department of Public Safety

- Colorado School Safety Resource Center

- Emergency Operations Planning Resources

Department of Education

- School Nursing and Health Services

State & Local Public Health:

COLORADO

Department of Public
Health & Environment

Communicating the latest guidance with healthcare providers, hospitals and first responders across the state

Actively monitoring travelers arriving from Ebola-affected countries & conducting risk assessments

Working to prevent exposures to contagious diseases like Ebola

For more information visit: www.colorado.gov/ebola

Colorado's Ebola Hotline: CO HESP 303.389.1687 or 1.877.462.2911

